Greg's Gazette

Remembering 9/11

9/11 happened on Tuesday September 11, 2001 in the morning. A week after that my dad and I went to see his aunt Arlene in Annapolis, Maryland. She lived 40 minutes from Washington, DC. I saw where the plane hit the Pentagon a week after it happened. We saw police cars all over the place when me and my dad were with my aunt and uncle. We rode over there to look in my uncle's van. I felt bad about it. I thought "God will be with us. Even if we don't see God, he sees us." We did the right thing by praying. What happened to the Trade Center was bad too.
