2 large eggs

1/4 cup milk

2 teaspoons sugar

1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

4 slices banana bread, sliced 3/4 to 1 inch thick (You can use any banana bread recipe you like for this, or buy banana bread at the store.)

1 to 2 tablespoons unsalted butter for cooking

Directions:

- 1.) Heat a large skillet over medium heat.
- 2.) Whisk together eggs, milk, sugar, salt, cinnamon, and vanilla.
- 3.) Carefully dip the banana bread slices into the mixture, turning to coat well on both sides.
- 4.) Add butter to skillet—just enough to cover the bottom when melted.
- 5.) Cook for 3 minutes until the bottom of the bread turns golden brown. Flip and repeat on the other side. If the butter looks like it may be getting too brown, lower the heat to medium low and remove pan from the burner.
- 6.) Transfer to a plate and top with whatever toppings you desire (whipped cream, bananas, maple syrup, walnuts or cinnamon.)

In the Northern Hemisphere (where we live) fall starts in September and ends in December.

But in the Southern Hemisphere fall starts in March and ends in June.

In the Southern Hemisphere, the seasons are switched due to the tilt of the Earth.
